

My name is Andrii. I am from Kyiv. I study at master's degree in the international tourism qualification. I like extreme sport and traveling. I think if you like your job you will work for pleasure. One more factor is that hospitality is one of the most faster-growing industries in the world. That is why I chose this industry. Finally want to say that I like travelling a lot.

