

My name is Jonas Francken and I'm 22 years old. Together with my parents and my three brothers I grew up in Duffel, a small town in Belgium. By train only 25 minutes away from Antwerp, the capitol of the world ;-)

I study marketing at the Artesis Plantijn university college in Antwerp. Next to studying I use my spare time to meet with friends, drink a nice beer and have a chat.

I'm always in for a laugh and try to stay as openminded as possible about people.

At the moment, I'm head leader of the local scouts. I have been in the scouts since I was 6 and it's so much more than just a hobby to me. Also, because of being in the scouts I developed multiple social and leading skills over the years.

I am not much of a reader because I can't sit still for longer than maybe 5 minutes. For the same reason I barely watch TV.

Last but not least I like to think of myself as a dreamer. I have more than one goal in life and hope I can realize them all, or at least some of them!

Ciao!

Jonas
